- Other checkpoints may be on the course that are not part of your event.

General Race Rules

- Penalties for rule infractions will be assigned in the form of time penalties, point penalties (deductions), or disqualification. Penalties will be assigned on the course if possible and will be determined by the race director and Adventure Enablers race committee.
- Any rules outlined in the Rules of Travel supersede these general race rules.
- Teams must ePunch at both manned and unmanned checkpoints (CP).
- In the event an ePunch does not work, use the pin punch to mark the checkpoint on the Rules of Travel. If there is no pin punch, take a photograph of your team and the most prominent feature at your location.
- Both mandatory and optional points may be located on the course, depending on the course.
- Each checkpoint must be acquired by using the prescribed method of travel as outlined in the Rules of Travel.
- To remain official, teams must collect all mandatory checkpoints on the course within the specified times.
- Checkpoints are worth the value outlined on the map.
- Ranking is determined by the highest accumulated points (minus penalties) and the fastest time (including time penalties).
- Teams may not travel on private property unless specified in the Rules of Travel.
- Teams must obey all traffic laws.
- Only racers, volunteers, and race officials are allowed in marked transition areas (TA) or staging areas.
- PFDs must be worn and secured properly at all times while paddling or doing a water challenge.
- Racers must use the same bike throughout the entire race. In the event of mechanical failure replacement parts can be used but they must be provided by the team, other racers, or an event official. No outside assistance is allowed.
- All racers are expected to be examples of good sportsmanship. Racers must treat fellow racers and race staff with courtesy and respect.
- Teams must assist fellow teams in need of medical attention. In the event of an emergency, call 911, then contact the race director.
- Teams must always remain within 100 feet of teammates and within visual contact (unless otherwise specified).
- All team members must check in together at each CP and TA. If one member must leave the course, they must do so at a CP or TA and notify race management. If a team leaves a teammate out on the course, that team will be immediately disqualified and not allowed to continue unofficially. Incomplete teams may continue unranked. A single person may become a soloist. Incomplete teams must carry the mandatory team gear.
